

Piotr Kaczmarek – a graduate from Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań, German philology. He is a CFA (Chartered Financial Analyst) and a licensed stockbroker.

He has been associated with the capital market from the very beginning of his career. He has 19 years of experience in the analysis and valuation of financial instruments. He managed portfolios of shares of two largest pension funds in Poland: ING OFE and Aviva OFE. He is a co-author of the first on the market of pension funds standard Corporate Governance Principles.

Initially, he worked as a stockbroker in Dom Maklerski BMT S.A. (1994-1995) and in Bank Handlowy w Warszawie (1997-1998), and later as a capital market dealer in Bank Amerykański w Polsce S.A. (1999-2000). Between 2000 and 2008, he was employed with ING Nationale-Nederlanden Polska PTE S.A., where he was first a stock analyst, then a share portfolio manager and later the investment director for shares. In 2006, he was appointed a member of the Board of Directors of the aforementioned company and became Director of the Investment Department. Between 2009 and 2010, he was employed as a manager in Skarbiec TFI S.A. From 2011 until May 2016, he worked with Aviva PTE BZ WBK S.A. first as a senior analyst and later as a share portfolio manager.

Currently, he is a member of the supervisory boards of ROBYG S.A., Ferro S.A. and Harper Hygienics S.A.